Answer these questions:

- 1. Who was going to visit the inn? Was he someone important? How do you know?

Ans. Amandine told Yannick that their most important guest was going to visit the inn with some friends. She asked him to make the arrangements properly as the guest was very famous.

- 2. Why did Amandine try to remove the burnt tablecloth from the fire?

Ans. Amandine tried to remove the burning tablecloth because their guest had made a drawing on it as a tip for her father. She did not want to upset her father as the guest was the most famous painter and sculptor in the world.

- 3. Did Amandine think her father would be angry with her for the burnt tablecloth? What tells you this?

Ans. Yes, Amandine thought that her father would be angry with her for the burnt tablecloth. We know this because she seemed nervous and quickly put the blame on Yannick even before her father asked.

4. “I thought she was going to lie. “ Who is the speaker talking about? Why did he think she was going to lie?

Ans. The speaker is talking about his cousin Amandine. She had blamed him for throwing the paper tablecloth into the fire. He thought she was going to lie to her father as she was crying and seemed frightened.

5. “I had worked out exactly what to do and how to do it.” What was the speaker going to do and why? What does this say about him?

Ans. The speaker planned to mend his mistake and make Amandine happy again. He wanted to go and visit the painter and request him to paint another picture for his uncle.
